EUREKA! THE SECRET FOUND.

Medical men have been for ages in search of an infallible cure for RHEUMATISM, without success; but the desideratum has at length been discovered.

HEALY'S RHEUMATIC LINIMENT

IS WARRANTED TO CURE THE MOST OBSTINATE CASES OF CHRONIC OR INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM.

This disease is incidental to the climate of California, and thousands in this country are hopelessly suffering from the effects thereof. This Liniment supplies the want so long needed; it relaxes the muscles, removes the pain, and restores health and vigor to the system.

Mr. Healy is in daily receipt of testimonials from parties who have used the Liniment, and the following well known citizens are among the number:

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6, 1866.

MR. HEALY—Dear Sir: Having witnessed many cures effected by your Rheumatism Liniment, I take great pleasure in universally recommending it to those in search of a really good article. Yours, &c.,
FRANK S. SCUDDER.

MR. FRANK HEALY: I suffered considerable rheumatic pains in both shoulders for a long time. I tried many remedies to get relief, but to no purpose. I was advised to try a bottle of 'Healey's Rheumatic Liniment,' which I did, and it has greatly relieved me. I am now using the second bottle, and am confident that in a few days I shall be well. Yours, &c., W. PAGE,
San Francisco, Feb. 9, 1866. 316 Montgomery str.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13, 1866.

To F. HEALY: I have heard much and seen practical proofs of your Liniment, and I endorse all you claim for it. L. GOETZ, 315 and 335 Battery str.

To F. HEALY—Dear Sir: Having heard of your Liniment for the cure of Rheumatism, I procured a bottle and used it, and find from the relief I experienced that it is an invaluable article, and something that every person should have who is subject to Rheumatism.

Very respectfully, &c.,
JUDGE SAM'L E. WETHERBEE,
Late of Virginia City.

San Francisco, Feb. 12, 1866.

MR. HEALY—Dear Sir: I have used your Liniment for the cure of Rheumatism, and can cordially recommend it as a most invaluable remedy for that painful complaint. Feb. 7th, 1866. WILLIAM B. MOFFAT.

THE IRON VAULT.

A STORY OF SAN FRANCISCO.

I live in San Francisco and am a lockman by trade. My calling is a strange one, and possesses a strange fascination, rendering it one of the most agreeable of pursuits. Many who follow it see nothing in it but labor—think of nothing but its returns of gold and silver. To me it has other charms than the money it produces. I am called upon, almost daily, to open doors and peer into neglected apartments; to spring the stubborn locks of safes, and gloat upon the treasures within; to quietly enter the apartment of ladies with more beauty than discretion, and pick the locks of drawers containing peace destroying missives, that the dangerous evidences of wandering affection may not meet the eye of a husband, or father, in possession of the missing key; to force the fastening of the cash boxes and depositories of records, telling of men made suddenly rich, of corporations plundered, of orphans robbed, of hopes crushed, of families ruined. Is there no charm in all this?—no food for speculation?—scope for the range of pleasant fancy? Then, who would not be a locksmith, though his face is begrimmed with the soot of the forge, and his hands are stained with rust?

But I have a story to tell—not exactly a story either—for a story implies the completion as well as the beginning of a narrative—and mine is scarcely more than the introduction to one. Let him who deals in the fancies write the rest. In the spring of 1856—I think it was in April—I opened a little shop on Kearney street, and soon worked myself into fair business. Late one evening, a lady, closely veiled, entered my shop, and pulling from beneath a cloak a small japanned box, requested me to open it. The lock was curiously constructed, and I was all of an hour fitting it with a key. The lady seemed nervous at the delay, and at length requested me to close the door. I was a little surprised at the suggestion, but of course complied. Shutting the door and returning to my work, the lady withdrew her veil, disclosing as sweet a face as can well be imagined. There was a restlessness in the eye and a pallor in the cheek, however, which plainly told of a heart ill at ease, and in a moment every emotion for her had given place to that of pity.

"Perhaps you are not well, madam, and the night air is too chilly?" said I rather inquisitively.

I felt a rebuke at the reply: "In requesting you to close the door, I had no other object than to escape the attention of persons."

I did not reply, but thoughtfully continued my work. She resumed:

"That little box contains valuable papers—private papers—and I have lost the key or it has been stolen. I should not wish to have you remember that I ever came here on such an errand," she continued with some hesitation, and giving me one look which it was no difficult matter for me to understand.

"Certainly, madam, if you desire it. If I cannot forget your face, I will at least attempt to lose the recollection of ever seeing it here."

The lady bowed rather coldly at what I considered a fine compliment, and I proceeded with my work, satisfied that a sudden discovery partially from me had nothing to do with the visit. Having succeeded, after much filing and fitting, in turning the lock, I was seized with a curiosity to get a glimpse at the precious contents of the box, and suddenly raising the lid, discovered a bundle of letters and a daguerreotype, as I slowly passed the box to its owner. She seized it hurriedly, and placing the letters and picture in her pocket, locked the box, and drawing a veil over her face, pointed to the door. I opened it, and as she passed into the street she merely whispered "Remember!" We met again, and I have been thus particular in describing her visit to the shop to render probable a subsequent recognition.

About two o'clock in the morning, in the latter part of May following, I was awoke by a gentle tap upon the window of the little room back of the shop in which I lodged. Thinking of burglars, I sprang out of bed, and in a moment was at the window, with a heavy hammer in my hand, which I usually kept at that time within convenient reach of my bedside.

"Who's there?" I inquired, raising the hammer, and peering out into the darkness—for it was as dark as Egypt under the curse of Israel's rod.

"Hist!" exclaimed the figure, stepping in front of the window; "open the door. I have business for you."

"Rather past business hours, I should say; but who are you?"

"No one that would harm you," returned the voice, which I imagined was rather feminine for a burglar's.

"No one that can!" I replied rather emphatically by way of warning, as I tightened my grip upon the hammer, and proceeded to the door. I pushed back the bolt, and slowly opened the door, discovered the stranger already upon the steps.

"What do you want?" I abruptly inquired.

"I will tell you," answered the same soft voice, "if you care to open the door wide enough for me to enter."

"Come in," said I, resolutely throwing the door ajar, and proceeding to light a candle. Having succeeded, I turned to examine my visitor. He was a small and neatly dressed gentleman, with a heavy Raglan around his shoulders, and a blue navy cap drawn suspiciously over his eyes. As I advanced toward him he seemed to hesitate a moment, then raised the cap from his forehead, and looked me curiously in the face. I did not drop the candle, but I acknowledge to a little nervousness as I hurriedly placed the light upon the table and silently proceeded to invest myself with two or three very necessary articles of clothing. As the Lord liveth my visitor was a lady, and the same for whom I had opened the box about a month before! Having completed my hasty toilette, I attempted to stammer an apology for my rudeness, but utterly failed. The fact is I was too much confounded.

Smiling at my discomfiture, she said:

"Disguise is useless, I presume; you recognize me?"

"I believe I told you madam I should not soon forget your face. In what way can I serve you."

"By doing half an hour's work before daylight to-morrow, and receiving five hundred dollars for your labor," was the reply.

"It is not ordinary work," said I inquiringly, "that commands so magnificent a compensation."

"It is a labor common to your calling," returned the lady. "The price is not so much for the labor, as the condition under which it must be performed."

"And what is the condition," I inquired.

"That you will submit to being carried from and to your own door blindfolded."

Ideas of murder, burglary, and almost every other crime to villinay hurriedly presented themselves in succession, as I politely bowed and said:

"I must understand something more of the character of the employment as well as the conditions, to accept your offer."

"Will not five hundred dollars answer in lieu of an explanation?" she inquired.

"No—nor five thousand."

She patted her foot nervously on the floor. I could see she had placed entirely too low an estimation on my honesty, and I felt some gratification in being able to convince her of the fact.

"Well, if it is absolutely necessary for me to explain," she replied, "I must tell you that you are required to pick the lock of a vault, and—"

"You have gone quite far enough, madam, with the explanation," I interrupted; "I am not at your service."

"As I said," she continued, 'you are required to pick the lock of a vault, and rescue from death a man who has been confined there for three days."

"To whom does the vault belong?" I inquired.

"My husband," was the somewhat reluctant reply.

"Then why so much secresy? or rather, how came a man confined in such a place?"

"I secreted him there to escape the observation of my husband. He suspected as much and closed the door upon him. Presuming he had left the vault and quitted the house by the back door, I did not dream until to-day that he was confined there. Certain suspicious acts of my husband, convince me that the man is there beyond human hearing, and will be starved to death by my barbarous husband, unless immediately rescued. For three days he has not left the house. I dragged him less than an hour ago, and he is now so completely stupefied that the lock may be picked without his interference. I have searched his pockets, but could not find the key; hence my application to you. Now you know all; will you accompany me?

"To the end of the world, madam, on such an errand."

"Then prepare yourself; there is a cab waiting at the door."

I was a little surprised, for I had not heard the sound of wheels. Hastily drawing on a coat, and providing myself with the necessary implements, I was soon at the door. There, sure enough, was the cab, with the driver in his seat, ready for the mysterious journey. I entered the vehicle, followed by the lady. As soon as I was seated, she produced a heavy handkerchief which, by the faint light of an adjoining street lamp, she carefully bound around my eyes. The lady seated herself beside me and the cab started. In half an hour the vehicle stopped—in what part of the city I am entirely ignorant, as it was evidently driven in anything but a direct course from the point of starting.

Examining the bandage, to see that my vision was completely obscured, the lady handed me the bundle of tools with which I was provided, then taking me by the arm, led me through a gate into a house which I knew was of brick, and after taking me along a passage way which could not have been less than fifty feet in length, and down a flight of stairs in what was evidently an underground basement stopped beside a vault and removed the handkerchief from my eyes.

"Here is the vault—open it," said she, springing the door of a dark lantern, and throwing a beam of light upon the lock.

I seized a bunch of skeleton keys, and after a few trials, which the lady seemed to watch with the most painful anxiety, sprang the bolt. The door swung open upon its hinges, and my companion telling me not to close it, as it was self-locking, sprang into the vault. I did not follow. I heard the murmur of low voices within and the next moment the lady reappeared, and he leaning upon her arm with a face so pale and haggard that I started at the sight. How he must have suffered during the three long days of his confinement!

"Remain here," she said, handing me the lantern; "I will be back in a moment."

The two slowly ascended the stairs, and I heard them enter a room immediately above where I was standing. In less than a minute the lady returned.

"Shall I close it, madam?" I said placing my hand on the door of the vault.

"No, no!" she exclaimed, hastily seizing my arm; it waits another occupant!"

"Madam, you certainly do not intend to—"

"Are you ready?" she interrupted, impatiently, holding the handkerchief to my eyes. The thought flashed across my mind that she intended to push me into the vault, and bury me and my secret together. She seemed to read the suspicion, and continued: "Do not be alarmed. You are not the man!"

I could not mistake the truth of the fearful meaning of the remark, and I shuddered as I bent my head to the handkerchief. My eyes were as carefully bandaged as before, and I was led to the cab, and thence driven home by a more circuitous route, if possible, than the one by which we came. Arriving in front of the house, the handkerchief was removed, and I stepped from the vehicle. A purse of five hundred dollars was placed in my hand, and and in a moment the cab and its mysterious occupant had turned the corner and were out of sight.

I entered the shop, and the purse of gold was the only evidence I could summan in my bewilderment, that all I had just done and witnessed was not a dream.

A month after that I saw the lady and the gentleman taken from the vault walking leisurely along Montgomery street. I do not know, but I believe the sleeping husband awoke within the vault, and his bones are there to-day! The wife is still a resident of San Francisco.

BANKING AND EXCHANGE.—The mystery of banking and exchange is here very cleverly shown:

On the banks of the noble Susquehanna stands the pleasant village of Clearfield. Like all places of its kind, it has its merchants and its banker, and naturally enough the merchants deposit funds in bank until their necessities require them. An instance of sharp practice in this connection occurred there a short time ago.

Mr. M——, a merchant, being on the eve of starting for Philadelphia to purchase goods, called upon Mr. F——, the banker, for a large amount of funds, which he had from time to time deposited, and which he would now have occasion to use.

Having to travel some distance by stage; Mr. M—— was advised by Mr. F—— not to risk carrying the money, but to purchase a draft on a banker in the city. Although exchange was worth one per cent., yet F—— kindly agreed to charge him but five-eighths, whereupon the draft was purchased. On taking his place in the stage, he was hailed by F—— with:

"I say, M——, I have a small package I wish you would carry to Philadelphia for me."

M——, willingly took charge of the package, and finding it addressed to the same party on whom the draft was drawn, made no delay in delivering it on his arrival in the Quaker city.

Great was his surprise, however, when the gentlemanly banker, proceeded to cash his draft, by coolly opening the package he had himself carried taling from thence the amount of his deposits at home less five-eighths per cent. and handed it to him, with a polite—

"Good-morning, sir."

M—— thinks Clearfield great on banking, and F—— some on exchange.

BURNING OF A COOLIE SHIP AND 672 PERSONS.

The Italian ship Napoleon Canevero, which sailed from Macao on March 8th, had a crew of 40 men, 663 Chinese Coolie emigrants and 8,000 boxes fire crackers. Soon after sailing an attempt was made by some of the Coolies to poison the ship's officers, and the ring leaders were punished by flogging. Two hundred had joined in a conspiracy to destroy the officers and capture the ship, and efforts were made to keep them in subordination, but they failed. On the 8th of March a rush was made by the Coolies to get possession of the vessel, but they were fired upon by the officers and crew, and about thirty of them shot, but yet they refused to surrender, declaring that they would either capture the vessel or die. They made another rush to obtain possession of the deck, when the crew fired down the hatches upon them. The account of the proceedings immediately subsequent is thus given by Alexander Francis Faw, master of the ship:

A cry of fire was raised and smoke seen to issue from several parts of the vessel aft. The fire engine was at once got ready for work, but whilst some of the deck lights were being lifted for the purpose of putting down the hose in the between decks, where the fire was, one of the coolies severed the wrist of the seaman engaged in handing them the hose, with a cutlass obtained from one of the guards, the consequence of which was that the man in less than twenty minutes, died from loss of blood. To all appearance the object of the coolies in setting fire to the ship was for the purpose of getting the crew below, they thinking the fire a more serious affair than the revolt, and that the crew in all probability, would at once go below and endeavor to prevent the fire making any further progress in the vessel, but in this they were disappointed. A second time they were asked to surrender, and they again replied they would not. The fire rapidly increasing, the captain ordered bread and water to be placed in the boats, and the latter got ready for immediate use.

The cook, assisted by the steward, placed in the gig, which was hanging on the starboard side of the ship's davits, two barrels of bread and a small keg containing about six gallons. The cook got into the boat, and while the steward was lowering it down, the takle rope parted, the boat was capsized and the cook drowned. The captain now ordered a long boat to be lowered, and while in the act of lowering it, the takle rope of this also parted, and the boat was swamped. A third boat was lowered in safety, which was immediately filled with some of the crew and put off from the ship's side. The ship now being fore and aft one mass of flames, the remainder of the crew left on board, which consisted of the captain, first mate, European interpreter, doctor, supercargo, storekeeper, chief steward, and one sailor, were compelled to throw themselves overboard, and swim towards one of the swamped boats. The captain, mate, supercargo and sailor alone reached the boat, the others having perished in the attempt.

After being in the water fifteen minutes or more, still holding on to the swamped boat and calling to the crew in the other boat for assistance, they came at length to our rescue, and we got into the boat which now contained thirty-one persons, the remainder of the crew, nine in number, having perished. The weather at this time being calm, an attempt was made to bail the water out of the long boat which was swamped, and having succeeded in doing so, fifteen men were placed in it. Having only six oars, two were given to the smallest boat, and the latter was towed by the large one—still keeping within a mile of the burning ship. At 9 o'clock P. M. the mizzen mast fell, and at 10 P. M. the vessel blew up, the fire having reached that part of the hold in which the 8,000 boxes of Chinese fire-crackers were stowed.

Of course every soul on board perished. The crew on board the boats was rescued by the Hamburg bark Madeira, bound to Saigon, China.

[From the Toronto Leader, June 5.

THE FENIAN PRISONERS—TWENTY-ONE OF THEM IN TORONTO JAIL—WHAT THEY TOLD A REPORTER.

At half-past 7 o'clock yesterday morning a special train on the Great Western Railway brought to this city a gang of twenty-one prisoners, captured near Fort Erie on Saturday and Sunday, all of them belonging to the band of Fenian cut-throats and robbers, some of whose depredations in that quarter have already been recorded.

On arriving at the station here, the prisoners who were handcuffed two and two, were marched to the jail, three miles distant.

Shortly after 7 o'clock, one of our reporters paid a visit to the jail for the purpose of seeing the prisoners, and gleaning what he could from them with regard to their names, occupation and residence, and also to learn, if possible, what reasonable or other excuse they could offer for joining in the murderous foray upon our people. He was conducted at once to the corridor occupied by the prisoners. The iron doors at the end were thrown open with a loud clatter of bolts and chains, the wretched criminals started from the different positions they occupied and looked eagerly toward the entrance, and then hastily approached their visitors, as if anxious to hear from the outside world. The Governor ordered them to "fall in!" and in a twinkling the prisoners fell into as pretty a line as ever delighted the eye of a spruce drill sergeant. The toes formed the proper angle with the head, their bodies were erect and their whole attitude that of "attention" with "eyes right" at the inspecting visitors. Yet these men, with one or two exceptions, all stoutly denied that they had ever been in any military service, or listened to the "sweet persuasion of a drill sergeant."

Our reporter addressed the prisoners singly, and noted the story each had to tell in explanation of his present position.

James Diamond, a young man of twenty-two, dressed in the prevailing fashion among "roughs" in American cities, said, in reply to inquiries, I live in New York, and am a moulder. I visited Buffalo last week on business, and while there some excitement arose on the opposite side of the river. Having an uncle at Fort Erie, I was afraid he might get into trouble, and concluded to pay him a visit. I went over on Sunday, and was there but a short time when I was taken by the soldiers. I had a pass from the Consul, but lost it, and then I was sent on here. I am no Fenian, and never was in the army. I took no part in any fighting.

Our reporter at this stage saw how it was likely to be with all whom he was about to interrogate, and accordingly, instead of asking them, "To what regiment of Fenians do you belong?" changed the querry to "What relative were you visiting at Fort Erie?" or, with a faint attempt at jocoseness, to, "Was it the pursuit of pleasure that brought you to Canada?"

John Smith, a bold youth of twenty, rather sullen in manner, and untained in aspect, said: "I have no particular residence. The last place I lived was in Nashville, Tenn. I was in the American army for a short time. I came up from Nashville with the Fenians, and visited Fort Erie with them; but do not belong to them. I was there simply as a spectator, in search of amusement. I was not in the fight, and had no arms whatever."

[The statements of seventeen other prisoners are given, nearly all of whom denied having been in the fight, or belonging to the Fenians.]

The Rev. John McMahon was the last in the line of prisoners. He was dressed in the garb of a priest—that is, a long black coat without a cassock, and a clerical band around his neck. He is a medium sized man, wearing long gray hair brushed back from his forehead, with a nervous, tremulous and wistful expression in his face, and withal a sharp and scrutinising glance. In answer to the inquiry how it was that he was found in such goodly company—a man of peace among a band of cut-throats—he said—"I am parish Priest of Anderson, Madison county, Indiana. I am forty-eight years old, and have been in America twenty-five of them. I was on my way to Montreal to look, after a legacy left by my brother who died there when I got among the Fenians. Having arrived at Buffalo I crossed over to Fort Erie in the progress of my journey, when they took me prisoner. They took my traveling bag from me, my vestments and cloak, and I was waiting to get them back when they compelled me to act as Chaplain. When the battle was over, I was called upon to hear the confessions of the dying men and administer the rites to them. I bandaged the wounds of the injured, the British as well as the others, and did what I could to relieve the suffering. When the troops came to Fort Erie they took me prisoner, but I protest I was with the Fenians against my will. I was on my way to Montreal, and they made me stay with them. I have always opposed and preached against them."

This ended the interview. The prisoners, nearly all of whom spoke without any Irish "brogue," appeared glad to give their names and residence, in order that their friends might know their whereabouts. Although they stoutly denied any connection with the raid, they occasionally let slip expressions which told of their having conspired against our peace and welfare, of their having lain in ambush for our native youth, and of their having coolly and deliberately taken the lives of those who had never given them cause of complaint, and who had always accorded the same liberties and privileges to others which they enjoyed themselves.

All the prisoners, with one exception, are Roman Catholics.

THE MORMONS—HOW BRIGHAM YOUNG'S WIVES LIVE.

The new work on the Mormons gives the following:

"The infernal arrangement of affairs at the Harem is very similar to that of a young ladies' boarding-school. Each woman having her own room, her affairs are all entered there. The culinary department is under the control of such of the wives as Brigham from time to time appoints. She is the stewardess, and carries the keys. A cook is employed—generally a man—and several servants besides, who are all under the control of the stewardess.

"When the meals are prepared and ready the bells rings, and each woman, with her children, if she have any, flies down to the dinner-table and is seated as before stated.

"Each, on rising, has her children to attend to, and get ready for breakfast; this over, she commences the business of the day; arranges her rooms, and sits down to her sewing or other work, as the case may be.

"A sewing-machine is brought into requisition, and one of the number appointed to use it. For the benefit of those who want a sewing-machine, it may be well to state how this one was procured. One day a man from St. Louis came to offer one for sale, stating that his price was ninety dollars. Brigham bought it, promising to pay the man whenever he should call. The man being poor, called in a few days. He did not get his pay. He called again, a number of times, with the same result. One of the wives became quite indignant, and said: "If I was in his place, I would never ask it from one so high in the priesthood. He had better give it to him than ask pay of him." The poor man never received his money, and as soon as he could get the means, left the Territory. This is the manner in which the Prophet becomes possessed of much of his property.

"Most of the women spin and make their every day clothing, doing their own coloring. They are quite proud of the quantity of cloth manufactured in their establishment every year. All work hard and take but very little out door exercise. Parties and the theater are their favorite amusements. At the theater, Brigham and one or two of the favored wives sit together in the "King's box," but the remainder of the women and the children sit in what is called "Brigham's corral." This is in the parquette, about the centre of the area. The Prophet goes down once or twice during the evening to the corral, and chats for a few moments with one and another, but in a short time he can be seen beside his 'dear Amelia' again.

"At the Mormon parties much gayety prevails. Appearance are maintained, somewhat, by paying more respectful deference to the first wives on such occasions. Gentiles, with whom the saints are on good terms, are well received and kindly entertained at these parties, and all join in giving themselves up to mirth and festivity. Dancing is not only a favorite amusement, it is cultivated to such an extent that it becomes a passion.

"Brigham's women, though better clothed than formerly, still work very hard. They are infatuated with their religion, and devoted to their husband. If they cannot obtain his love, they content themselves with his kindness, and endeavor to think themselves happy. As religion is their only solace, they try to make it their only object. If it does not elevate their minds it deadens their susceptibilities, and as they are not permitted to be women, they try to convince themselves that it is God's will they should be slaves.

"A music-master, a dancing-master, and a teacher of the ordinary branches of an English education, are employed in the family school. Also a teacher of French. His children have much better advantages than any other in the Territory. Dancing and music are the leading accomplishments, and everything else is made subordinate to these."

INDIAN CAMPAIGN.—The Idaho World, of June 3d, says:

"Major Marshall is preparing for an active campaign against the Indians reported to be concentrated on the Upper Owyhee. Several companies of troops have lately arrived at Fort Boise, which will be immediately despatched for the seat of war. Capt. Walker leaves in a day or two for the Bruno country, where he intends to establish a military post—headquarters for that section of the country. The Indians have concentrated for the purpose of making a grand raid, and driving the whites out of the country. It will probably result in the extermination or dispersion of the savages, and the clearing out of the overland road.

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 1866

Now, by St. Paul, the work goes bravely on;
The Stars and Stripes are up for Liberty,
Flag of the Nation--Talisman of the Free,
Curs'd be the hand that dares to pull thee down.

WE are requested to announce that the Rev. Mr. Ely will preach in the Union Church tomorrow morning and evening.

DEFYING AUTHORITY.—In another column we notice certain fracases which occurred at Alta on Sunday last. In connection with these disgraceful proceedings we have several times this week heard rumors, which, if reliable, demand attention and serious comment, and our duty as a public journalist and an advocate of law and order compel us to give them publicity and brand them with our condemnation. Mr. J. H. Strobridge, General Superintendent of the working parties of the Pacific Railroad Company, it is asserted, peremptorily forbade the arrest, by our local peace officers, of certain parties engaged in the melees at Alta on the occasion above referred to. It is furthermore stated that he proclaimed as a decree for future guidance, that he would prohibit and prevent the arrest of any Railroad men by said officers. We are not prepared fully to vouch for the truth of these reports, but, if they are true, and the fiat of this subordinate agent of the Railroad Company can shield wrong-doers because he covers them with his protecting wing, it becomes a nice and interesting question to know just how far the great corporation itself, through a convocation of its Directory, will ultimately subvert local government, when the great highway is completed and the Company in full enjoyment of the plentitude of its power. Did Mr. Strobridge pursue the course attributed to him? If so, does the Railroad Company endorse his action? Our columns are open for answers to both of the above interrogatories.

A SHARP SCENT FOR SPIRITUAL ADVANTAGES.—It has been remarked as an evidence of the zeal of the Methodist itineraney that the chinking and daubing of the pioneer cabin in a backwoods settlement has usually been the signal for the formation of a Methodist "congregation." To the general public this may seem like an exaggerated statement, but our experience in the "Great West" has taught us that such action would be unusually tardy, and that the stump of the first log cut for cabin purposes is most generally mounted by the indomitable itiuerant as an altar from which to invoke the divine blessing on the embryo domicil. Something like unto this activity was exhibited at Alta, our new neighbor, on Sunday last, by Rev. N. R. Peck, of the M. E. Church in this place. A barn-like structure, unbattened and scarcely roofed, was pressed into the service of the Lord, a sermon preached to a fair audience, and the nucleus of a Sunday School formed on the first Sabbath after the completion of the railroad to this new terminus. Like his apostolic predecessor, Mr. Peck is an indefatigable "fisher for men," and if those in his neighborhood fail to bite at the gospel hook, it will be from no failure of his to bait it well.

THERE 'S MONEY IN IT!—In view of the prospective frequency of pic-nic and other excursions from the vallies to the mountains, the idea has suggested itself that there is a fine opening for some enterprising citizen to select some of the pleasant little valleys hereabouts, where good springs and dense shade is to be found, to prepare a place where such parties could be comfortably received and provided with amusement and refreshment. We are confident that any one would be handsomely remunerated who would arrange a place of the kind indicated—putting up swings, flying-horses, etc., and providing shooting-galleries, billiard tables, bowling-alleys, etc., and constructing reservoirs for bathing in the pure, limpid waters so plentiful in this neighborhood. It must be evident to every one that an hour or two in the sun and dust, on a barren point, as the goal for which several hours ride in a close car is to be made, will soon discourage pic-nickers and stop that agreeable and profitable class of pleasure-seekers from visiting us. A comparitively small outlay would so improve the facilities for enjoyment in this respect, that we are surprised that no one has made a venture which seems to be attended with so few risks.

RUN OVER AND KILLED.—Two fine valuable cows belonging to Mrs. Swenson, a widow lady of this place, were run over and killed by the excursion train of the C. P. R. R. Co., on Sunday last. The attendant circumstances indicate carelessness and indifference as the cause of accident, which is a serious calamity so far as Mrs. Swenson is concerned. We are informed that when the case was submitted to Superintendent Crocker, he was unable, from the multiplicity of other and more important business engagements, to find time to "bother" with it. It may be a trifle too contemptible for the attention of the Superintendent of this great corporation, but it is far from being so to the poor lady whose chief dependence has thus been destroyed.

VARIETY THE SPICE OF LIFE.- After the agreeable party of excursionists from below left Alta on Sunday last, the hum-rum every-day appearance of things became monotonous to those who were congregated there from Railroad camps and other points in the vicinity, and this monotonous condition was varied and relieved by some half dozen Donnybrook knock-downs. Blood and strychnine flowed freely, but we believe that no lives were lost nor any bones broken. It pains us to record this evidence of a truculent and disorderly spirit in our young neighbor, and would advise its citizens to follow more closely the staid propriety of our own older and model community. As observed elsewhere, we have sent Bro. Peck as a missionary amongst them, and would implore these belligerents to at least give his gospel bait a nibble.

AN AWFUL SQUABBLE.—There is no small amount of excited feeling being aroused in this neighborhood between the admirers and defenders of the Wheeler & Wilson, Grover & Baker, Singer & Florence sewing-machines, respectively. Our foreman, among others, has been drawn into the whirlpool of this temporary excitement. He accords all the merits claimed for the others, but feels disposed to insist that the "Florence," in addition to all the good sewing and embroidering qualities of the others, possesses the advantage of being neater, handsomer and much more easily regulated and kept in apple-pie order.

A RECRUIT FOR JOHNSON.—The system by which the great Jehovah governs the universe which he created is one of compensations. Of this so patent and oft reiterated fact, the past week has furnished a most notable example. Both branches of Congress, by an overwhelming vote, passed, notwithstanding the objections urged by the President in his veto message, the second Freedman's Bureau Bill. This, under any circumstances would be regarded as an evidence of that body's disapproval of the action of the Executive, but, when we remember that the President's message contains all the assurance which his word could give that the Bureau should, at all events, be continued beyond the time for the next Congress to meet, the prompt passage of the bill over the veto by so large a majority—103 to 33 in the House and 33 to 12 in the Senate—seemed to imply a doubt of Presidential veracity well calculated to humiliate or enrage. But, conformably to the divine law to which we have above adverted, almost simultaneously with this action by Congress, the Executive received a more than compensating off-set in the patronizing adhesion of B. P. Gwynn, an adolescent publisher who commemorated his advent to the sole proprietorship (!) of the Grass Valley Union by casting the protecting mantle of that august position over the Presidential shoulders.

If any should doubt the value of this young leviathan of the Grass Valley puddle as a powerful ally, they have but to read his "leader" published cotemporaneously with his Johnsonian salutatory, to be convinced that when he "flops" his tail, the pot political is bound to "siz." In the first flush of sole proprietorship, he makes his preliminary pass at, and fleshes his maiden sword in the corporate body of the Pacific Railroad Company. This "swindle of swindles"—this "Charley Crocker franchise"—this "colossal humbug" is indicted, tried, convicted, and would be duly sentenced and executed, were it not that this herculean tyro, appalled by the fire and force of his own eloquence, like Mark Anthony to the Roman rabble incensed by his own oratory, pleads with his readers against "seeking unlawful redress for their wrongs." Incidentally, in the course of this railroad-crushing "leader," and merely as an indication of the Titanic efforts to be expected hereafter, he refers to those whom the Railroad Company sought to conciliate by suspending Sunday travel—i. e., the membership of the Christian churches—as "those who would drawl maledications out against the unthinking Sabbath-breaker, while they, on the Lord's own day, would sneakingly lay their plans to swindle their fellow-men." Verily, we here have an indication that, if he should pour but gently from the full vials of his bottled sarcasm upon the heads of the humble followers of the meek and lowly, there would be small cause for unloosing Beelzebub to strike terror to the souls of the Christian brotherhood.

Hail! downy-cheeked sole proprietor, throttler of railroad hydras; scourge of psalm-singing churchmen and potential advocate of "my policy."

EFFECTS OF THE SWINDLE.—On Sunday last an excursion train of the Pacific Railroad Company brought eight hundred or a thousand denizens of Sacramento, the plains and the foothills up to Alta. On Thursday nearly an equal number of excursionists from below attended a pic-nic in the edge of our town for the benefit of the Sacramento Sixth Street M. E. Church. From these and similar social commingligs the beneficent effects are manifold and reciprocal. To the sweltering population of the lower country, the pure water, bracing atmosphere and grand scenery of our mountains and the cool umbrage of our grand forests are invigorating and health-restoring, while the pleasure of social intercourse with our neighbors and the receipt of the "circulating medium" which they disburse in our midst are both agreeable and profitable. Besides, many of those who thus incidentally visit us as pleasure-seekers are led to observe the inducements to become permanent residents and hence our vicinity is likely to increase in valuable population.

UNLIKE SHINGLE SPRINGS.—A teamster who did not belong to the Association "ring," having taken a load at Alta independently of the interposition and lower than the rules of that organization, sundry members thereof presumed to proceed, with a high hand and outstretched arm to forcibly unload his wagon, and furthermore prohibited him from thus violating their "regulations." This same course of proceedure was adopted some time ago at Shingle Springs and a subservient and sympathetic community not only tolerated but gave it a quasi endorsement, but such unwarrantable interference with private rights will not do for this latitude and the self-constituted regulators were soon brought to realize that there are laws and courts for the protection of the citizen even though he fails to become a member of their Association. A visit from our active and efficient Sheriff prompted them to reload the goods and allow the teamster to depart in peace.

BITTEN BY A TARAUTULA.—Mr. W. A. Selkirk, of this place, was bitten on the foot by a large black spider or tarautula, last week, from the effects of which that member was swollen to treble its size, great pain was experienced throughout his body, especially in the elbow joints and extreme nausea and vomiting supervened. Whisky, copiously administered internally, and the external application to the wounded part of tobacco leaves steeped in tincture of arnica, produced immediate beneficial effects, and prevented a fatal issue from the virulent attack of this cousin-german of the Copperhead, and the life of our erst while cotemporary was preserved, that he might remain, as heretofore, an ornament to society and bulwork of loyalty.

I. O. O. F. INSTALLATION.—On Friday, July 13th, the following officers of Olive Lodge, No. 81, I. O. O. F., were duly installed by N. W. Blanchard, D. D. G. M.: W. H. Keeler, N. G.; Sol. Williams, V. G.; J. H. Boke, Rec. Sec.; D. Pachen, Perm. Sec.; R. Hudepohl, Treas.; Trustees—B. F. Moore, Allan Towle and N. W. Blanchard.

THANKS.—Messrs. Schwab and King, of the Dutch Flat Brewery, showed their appreciation of standard literature, by presenting our office with a keg of their delicious lager, during the past week. Those of us who partook of this refreshing beverage enjoyed it hugely, and the political rule of this office will hereafter exclude all from our primaries who refuse to hurrah for Schwab and King!

THE PHILADELPHIA LOVE FEAST.—On the 14th of August proximo, in the "City of Brotherly Love," within sound of the old Independence bell whose clangor summoned the Fathers to their labor of founding this Government there is to be a convocation which has attempted to steal the name and will doubtless essay to wear the livery of loyalty. We make no question but that many will unite in that conclave who, no more than three brief years agone marched toward the same goal beneath the flaunting flag of treason and with the purpose and the hope of subverting and destroying the very government which they now would fain control to the exclusion of those who met and repulsed them on the bloody field of Gettysburg. Of this kind of material from the late seceded States and of delegates elected on the recommendation and under the auspices of Democratic Central Committees in the organized States is to be composed, we are led to believe, the Philadelphia Union Convention, convoked for the purpose of re-organizing and consolidating the Union elements of the country. In this connection we observe that the Democratic Central Committee of Kentucky have recommended the election of delegates to the convention, including in their recommendation the significant suggestion that the delegation should be composed of equal members of Democrats and Johnson Republicans (?). This latter suggestion would seem to indicate that a new species has been added to the genus political. It seems incredible that Presiden Johnson and his advisers can carry a bold front and pretend to be faithful to the record which secured their elevation and the confidence of their former supporters, and yet prefer to refer for the endorsement of their actions to their whilom opponents and villifiers.

While the party which nominated and elected Andrew Johnson maintains its organization intact, so long as it has its County, District, State and National Central Committees, composed mainly of the same materials as when they confided to him the maintenance of their principles and the defense of their flag, it would seem to be the natural and proper course for him to refer to them any differences of opinion between himself and co-ordinate branches of the Government. Failing to do this the straightforward, honest, manly course would seem to be to adopt a new name for the party which he proposes to organize rather than to attempt to filch the venerated name of our existing organization, unless he assumes that he only comprehended the issues upon which he was elected, and those who elected him are blind to the doctrines which they espouse.

PHIL LYNCH "OUT IN THE COLD."—The Enterprise, admittedly the leading paper of the Silver State, has very naturally become disgusted with the political companionship of the truckling, variable, time serving proprietor o the Gold Hill News, and has deliberately read the old mercenary out of the Union party. Nevadans, who have had but a limited opportunity of becoming acquainted with Philip, may be excused for being surprised that he, whose columns were recently loaded with longitudinous leaders eulogistic of Judge Kelley, of Pennsylvania, and of his argument in favor of universal suffrage, should now be maundering about a "white man's government," prating of "conservatism" and licking the dust of "my policy" from the Presidential feet. We old residents of Placer and long-time familiars of the aforesaid Lynch are proof against surprise at any tergiversation in that quarter. Just as surely as victory will perch on the banners of those who have the heaviest battalions, just so surely is Philip to be found on the side possessed of the heaviest money-bags or the fullest pots of official pap. In the dark hours of the nation's deepest gloom, when it was considered that every word spoken or line published, no matter how insignificant the source had influence, Lynch published a paper in this county, and such was the anxiety of earnest patriots that even the support of his paper was considered of some importance, and his hungry demands were met until the game not being considered worth the powder, and the party becoming tired of the semi-annual clamor of the hungry old cormorant whose patriotism was in his breeches pocket or his wife's reticule, cast him off and he was driven to a new field. None of his old acquaintances doubt but his new base is flanked by Federal pap, furnished in larger measure than Senators Stewart and Nye consider him worth.

SEMI-WEEKLY.—The Dutch Flat Enquirer proposes to issue a semi-weekly soon, if sufficient encouragment is offered. Upon similar considerations we will agree to issue a daily.—Stars and Stripes.

"Old Jones," by frequent and patient experimenting, succeeded in procuring a span of horses that he could winter on brake-weed and declared with proud satisfaction that they fattened on it. Whenever the patrons of the Stripes induce a daily issue of that sheet, we shall deem it proof conclusive that they are as unfastidious as to their literary fodder as Jones' team was on the hay question.

HEALTHY SUMMER DIET.—Nothing conduces more surely to good health in the summer season than plenty of good ripe fruit, of which our market is this season better supplied than we have ever known it to be. Mr. Harris, better known as "the loyal Georgian," at the beginning of the season perfected arrangements for receiving regular supplies of fresh fruit and vegetables by rail which he delivers to our citizens, daily, at their residences. Mr. Harris is constantly placing us under obligations for luscious plums, pears and apricots, for which we tender our grateful acknowledgments.

GOOD FOR WHOOPING-COUGH.—Equal parts of pond-lily root and honey mixed and given in doses of a teaspoonful three times a day, or oftener, if the paroxysms are violent, will greatly modify the severity of an attack of whooping-cough, and has been known, in many cases, to effect a cure. As this disease is somewhat prevalent among the little ones at present, the remedy is cheap and easily obtained, and we can confidently advise a trial of it.

PICNIC INCIDENTS.—At the picnic enjoyed near this place by the congregation of the 6th street (Sacramento) M. E. Church, on Thursday, a fine collation was spread near the depot, after which the crowd repaired to the grove where short, pithy and appropriate addresses were delivered by Rev. M. C. Briggs and Hon. J. G. McCallum, which were eloquently responded to by Mr. Charles Crocker.

EXTRA SESSION.

MR. EDITOR:—I observe a considerable diversity of opinion among leading Union papers in relation to the propriety or expediency of an extra session of the Legislature for the purpose of ratifying the amendment to the Constitution lately submitted by Congress.

To my mind the ratification of the proposed amendment seems to present the most direct and speedy method of securing a tangible and permanent solution of existing difficulties. I believe that a majority of the present supporters of President Johnson (if not the President himself) will leave no means untried to prevent the ratification, and their success would insure the transfer of the control of our government from the hands of those who have defended to those who lately fought to destroy it. I believe that this result would lead to terrible persecution of that portion of the Southern people who were leal and loyal during the war, if not to the proscription of loyal men North as well as South. Believing all this, and knowing that the power is yet in the hands of those who would do so, to prevent so great a calamity befalling the nation, I can but consider it culpable to allow a false idea of magnanimity to induce us to take ever so small a risk, if such risk is possibly to be avoided. The issues are momentous—the risk of even good and loyal men being tempted beyond their power of resistance is too great to justify any unnecessary delays. It is plainly within the scope of the authority of those who are authorized to convoke the several loyal Legislatures to secure the ratification beyond a contingency. I can but consider that they are assuming a terrible and perhaps disastrous responsibility when they fail to use that authority. The chief objection to an extra session in our State, which I have noticed in loyal papers, arises from a fear that members might be induced to hold a prolonged and expensive session for general business. As I am well acquainted with a large majority of the members of our Legislature, I entertain no such fears, but, in order to secure a result so desirable as the early ratification of the amendment, thus allaying present and preventing future discord, I would be glad to see some one of the Union members draw up and circulate among his fellows, a pledge that they would limit their session to the disposal of this, the only subject which demanded or caused it. I can see no impropriety in such a course—on the contrary, I think that true patriotism demands it. Yours,

DISCRETION.

COINCIDENT BUT IRRELEVANT ITEMS.—The editor of the Auburn Stars and Stripes was among the excursionists to Alta on Sunday last. There was an unusual amount of drunkenness, disorder and clashing between Railroad and anti-Railroad men at Alta on Sunday afternoon.

LARGE EGG.—Thomas Jamison, Esq., presented us a few days since with an egg, measuring seven and seven-eighths by six and three-fourths inches in circumference. The hens are spreading themselves this year.—Stars and Stripes.

Coroner Jamison is famous throughout our county as a practical joker, besides which he is evidently a close economist, and has, in the instance above noted, adopted a cheap method of "egging" our neighbor toward the cruel joke of a daily issue. Was the receipt of a fresh egg so unusual a circumstance as to compel the Bohemian to make it the subject of a special item?

A COOL ROBBERY.—While Mr. Jas. Staples, of the Somerset claim, was taking an afternoon nap at his residence on Thursday last, a thief possessed of unquestionable daring and coolness, entered the room and appropriated, removed and absquatulated with all of the wearing apparel in reach. Mr. Staples acknowledges himself subjugated—he "accepts the situation," and is waiting patiently to be "reconstructed." It is presumed that the bold purloiner is rigging himself up to attend the Philadelphia Convention.

BAKER'S ELOQUENCE.—A correspondent of the San Francisco Tribune furnishes that paper with the following extract from one of General Baker's speeches, and says: "I desire to rescue from oblivion the following thrilling passage from a speech delivered by Col. E. D. Baker at Forest Hill, during one of our political campaigns. It kindles a fiery enthusiasm in one's breast to read it. What must have been the effect upon his listeners, when the impassioned words rolled forth in burning eloquence from his lips?

"Whoever heard of any man reciting a poem to slavery? But if you want the noblest and most inspiring poems, save those from heaven, read Milton, read Shelley, read Homer, read Halleck, read Bryant, and above all, read Shakspeare. There are poets who sell themselves, with venal spirits, to flatter in the atmosphere of courts; but even they, seduced by the pomp and brilliancy of fashion, cannot break into praise of slavery. They may praise the despot himself, but the iniquity of slavish servitude they dare not crown with song. The hauteur of the poet will not allow it, and his hand trembles, falters, and is palsied ere he attempts to sweep it in such praise across the lyre of song. But when you talk to him of freedom, the lip of the poet quivers with inspiration; his heart glows, and the numbers break out as the stream dashes from the mountain top to seek the valley below—bright, clear, sparkling, free. And are you ashamed to march in that procession? Shall reproach, shall malignant slander, shall base misrepresentation make you hesitate? For me, at least, no; a thousand times, no! Where my youth has trod, my manhood and age shall march. I am not ashamed to wheel into the great procession. I love freedom better than slavery. I will speak her words; I will listen to her music; I will acknowledge her impulses; I will stand beneath her flag; I will fight in her ranks; and when I do so, I shall find myself surrounded by the great, the wise, the good, the brave, and the noble of every land."

MOST OF OUR LADY READERS are, no doubt aware of the fact that the beautiful embroidery on cloaks and dresses so fashionable, can only be executed on the Grover & Baker Sewing-Machine. This machine, always a favorite in the family, has now become indispensable. Unlike other machines, it is ever ready to perform, in the most perfect manner, every kind of plain or ornamental sewing that may be required; and we are not surprised to find it carrying off the highest premiums at the different State fairs now being held throughout the country.—Le Bon Ton.

REDUCTION IN PRICE OF THE

AMERICAN WATCHES,

Made at Waltham, Mass.

In consequence of the recent great decline in gold and silver and all the materials used in the manufacture of our goods, and in anticipation of a still further decline, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

WITH GOLD AT PAR.

So that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years, and the manufacture and sale of

More than 200,000 Watches,

Have given our productions the very highest rank among time-keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to more than eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in stating that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks engraved on the plate:

1.—"American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2.—"Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3.—"P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4.—"Wm. Ellery."
5.—OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co." Waltham, Mass.
6.—Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade mark or price,

All the Products of their Factory are fully Warranted

To be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that, unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this warrantee is good at all times against the Company or their Agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED
A PURE AND POWERFUL TONIC,
CORRECTIVE AND ALTERATIVE,
—OF—
Wonderful Efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fever, Cramps, Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, whether arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system, or produced by special causes.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, genial and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fierce excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of balsamic herbs and plants, with the mildest and purest of all diffusive stimulants.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be appreciated. In case of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises an electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed it operates to reinforce and re-establish them.

The weak Stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of DYSPEPSIA, and in less confirmed forms of INDIGESTION. Acting as a gentle and painless apparient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habits, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Langour, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive and from both sexes.

The agony of BILIOUS COLIC is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

Last, though not least, it is the ONLY SAFE STIMULANT, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and somachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and, it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers every where, and by RHEUMATISM.

Throughout this Coast a great deal of suffering is experienced from Rheumatism. Weeks and even months of protracted and aggravated misery is endured by the victims of medical insufficiency and ignorance, which could be cured just as speedily as was Mr. SPARROW, whose testimony is given below, and is only the echo of hundreds of other cases. Dr. Bourne cures without medicines, which accounts for his extraordinary success.—No. 10 Masonic Temple, Post street entrance.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 6, 1861.

DR. BOURNE:—Last winter I was nearly dead, by an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I suffered the most excruciating pains for about five weeks, without any hope of relief, when a friend hearing of my illness, called to see me, and assured me that if I would stop 'drugging and dosing,' and go to you, that you would have me walking about the streets in three days. Sure enough, although I was utterly helpless, and conveyed to your house in a carriage, lifted into the bath, yet, on coming out of it, I largely assisted myself, doing much towards dressing, and, without assistance, walked from the bath to the carriage. On the fourth day, I discharged my carriage and walked with a friend's aid, the entire distance to your house (nearly a mile) and home again, and so on until cured. I felt myself a well man. And now I am happy to do you this little service of publicly certifying to the simple truth, leaving it to do its work among my friends and acquaintances as may chance to see this.

Your friend,
JOSEPH SPARROW.

CONSUMPTION.

An Interesting Letter.

Very few persons, even among physicians, would have been willing upon any terms to have been in the condition of the writer of the following letter on the 14th of February last. I will anticipate somewhat his report of the facts by saying that on the 15th of August last he made me a visit, "the very picture of health." Time, which tries and proves all things, has sufficiently tested this case, and shown that neither relapse nor collapse have followed; the cure is perfect; and can be cited among the scores of similar cases the result of my improved mode of treating diseases without medicine.

G. M. BOURNE.
Water Cure Physician,
No. 10 Masonic Temple, Post street

SACRAMENTO, April 30, 1865.

DR. G. M. BOURNE—Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure and satisfaction that I now let you know of my good health. Looking back upon what I have passed through, it seems as if I had been lifted from the grave, and I think it my duty to acknowledge to you and the world the benefit I derived from water treatment as administered by you in your celebrated baths. It was in August, 1864, when disease developed itself with a severe cough. I then took medicides, getting worse with chills, fevere, loss of strength, and was pronounced consumptive. This set me to thinking, and finally I determined to leave my business and go to the Sandwich Islands, having been informed that I could not be cured here. I went to San Francisco, and while waiting for a ship called upon Dr. Bourne, who stated that a trip to the Islands would probably result disastrously, was wholly unnecessary, as I could be speedily cured at his establishment. I placed myself under his treatment, and in one week was so improved I thought I could risk returning home and do my duty as Engineer on the Central Pacific Railroad. The Doctor objected, but I thought I knew better, and returned to duty. In about two weeks my cough returned, and I kept getting worse, and contrary to Dr. Bourne's injunction never to take medicine again, committed that folly, and soon was so completely run down that I could scarcely walk; so, as a last resort, I concluded once more to try the Water Cure. I went to San Francisco—few of my friends expecting me to return; in fact, I thought my return doubtful. On arriving at Dr. Bourne's establishment (February 14, 1865,) I was not able to get into the bath without assistance, but in a few days I began to recover myself again. I remained with him only six weeks, when I felt "a wiser and better man," without the aid of medicine. I have now been at work several weeks, and find that I am gaining every day, and at present bid fair to be stouter than ever before. Persons visiting the Doctor's establishment find it just what it should be, both in the Ladies' and Gentlemens' Departments, and I cannot say too much in praise of the Doctor's kind attentions to his patients.

This letter I write for the benefit of all the afflicted, to be used as the Doctor decides, and should it be the means of directing any to his care and treatment who (as they assuredly will) find relief, I will be paid for my trouble.

JAMES CAMPBELL,
Engineer Central Pacific Railroad.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 22, 1865.

Advised by the undersigned, Mr. James Campbell, of the Central Pacific Railroad, (who was then in a most deplorable state of ill health,) placed himself under the care of Dr. Bourne, the Water Cure Physician. Some six months afterward he visited the city, when I accidentally met him at Dr. Bourne's establishment, and am happy to say, restored to the enjoyment of good health, and in fine spirits.

JOHN SULLIVAN.

☞ Dr. Bourne treats all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs—which includes diptheria, brochitis, incipient consumption, pleurisy, croup, etc.—with greatest success. Great relief is afforded in advanced stages of consumption. Rheumatism, paralysis, neuralgia, fever and ague, dropsy, etc., are also cured quickly, pleasantly and economically. No medicine whatever.

Confirmation Strong of an Interesting Letter.

SACRAMENTO, November 23, 1865.

DEAR DOCTOR:—I received your letter a few days since asking for my photograph, which I will attend to as soon as convenient. At present I am very busy, on account of the stormy weather, being out at all times, both night and day, and am enjoying very good health, apprehending no danger, if properly careful, as every one should be. I have read my letter in the "Call" and other papers, and have been asked several times concerning it, and whether it is correct, and I say I can vouch for its contents, and more if required, and so can a great many others who knew me at the time.

I remain your friend,
JAMES CAMPBELL.

To Dr. BOURNE, San Francisco.

Dr. Bourne takes the liberty to publish the above as many persons had prophesied his relapse into his former condition, on returning to his duties, of the writer of "An Interesting Letter," whose statements concerning the cure of a well defined case of consumption have recently attracted so much attention to the Water Cure, as improved upon and practiced by Dr. Bourne. This additional testimony must prove satisfactory to all reasonable minds. It should be remembered that Dr. Bourne uses no medicines whatever, and that his patients almost universally are those who failed to receive relief from the medical practitioners; yet they are cured with great rapidity, and in a pleasant and agreeable manner No. 10, Masonic Temple, Post street entrance. jy13 3m

CALIFORNIANS should test the merits of DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand in the mines. Its daily use will the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitter, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health. Dec9-3m

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE.—Dr. Maggiel is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all-healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that MAGGIEL'S BILIOUS, DYSPEPTIC AND DIARRHEA PILLS cure where all others fail. Which for Burns, Scalds, Childblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin MAGGILL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine street, New York. R. H. HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. YOUNG, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism, it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sick and troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice. Do not forget the number or the manner of directing your letters. Consultation Office, 540, Washington street, San Francisco. Dec-3m

MEDICAL ADVICE.—DR. WM. K. DOHERTY'S Medical and Surgical Institute is becoming a sine quo non to the welfare of our State and health of our citizens; and his rapidly spreading reputation, although it may excite surprise, is but the signal of skill, and follows as the natural result of such a cause. We are personally acquainted with gentlemen who had suffered for years under chronic disease, and who had taken advantage of every available means that promised relief, but without success, until they called upon Dr. Doherty, who, in an incredibly short space of time, has given them entire relief. It is gratifying to announce this fact, because the Dr. is a gentleman who seeks, not by defamation of others, to establish his reputation or ruin of another's fame. The Doctor conducts his own Institute in such a manner must be gratifying to all his patients. He examines, advises, and recommends without charge, and the patient, after hearing his terms for treatment, can accept or reject at pleasure. In no case does the Doctor make a charge unless he effects a cure. This he is able to do, because he feels the confidence which long experience has given, and no doubt the consolation which appertain to that confidence. Persons afflicted with either acute or chronic disease, would do well to consult the Doctor; at all events, it can do no harm, as for consultation he asks no fee; nor does he insist on obedience to his advice unless the patient places himself under his care. His offices are on Sacramento street, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship office.—News

AT LEAST two-thirds of the Diseases with which the human family are afflicted, are brought on by the want of attention to the condition of the Blood. Whenever the blood becomes impure, no matter from what cause, the effects of such impurity are immediately felt, either in one way or another; and unless measures are at once taken to remove such impurities, the whole system becomes affected, and a long fit of sickness and sometimes death is the result. Dr. Samuel Adams, a well-known Chemist of San Francisco, has discovered certain herbs and roots, mostly of California growth, which he has combined with Sarsaparilla and Iodide of Potas, and succeeded in producing a Medicine that, while it is entirely harmless in every particular, will in short time completely eradicate from the Blood all impurities of whatever nature, and will restore the patient to perfect ROBUST HEALTH. The preparation is called "ADAMS' BLOOD PURIFIER," and is for sale at wholesale at the United States Drug Store, corner of Bush and Powell streets, San Francisco, and by Dr. D. W. Strong, Dutch Flat. 40

A TIGER STORY.—The daughter of a Moonda, or head man of the place, was affianced, in the rude native fashion, to one of the young men of the village, and their nuptials were to come off in a few days. One evening the girl with some of her female companions, went, as was their daily wont, to the brook to bathe and fetch water for the household. They had been absent but a quarter of an hour, when the startling voice of a tiger, and the piercing shrieks of the woman, suddenly broke the silence, and before the roused villagers could snatch their arms, the girls came flying back with horror in their faces, and in a few words told the dreadful fact that a tiger had carried off one of their party. It was the Moonda's daughter. Her kinsmen rushed, but with hopeless hearts, to the rescue. Foremost among these was her intended husband, and close by his side his sworn brother, allied to him by a ceremony, common among his people, of testing each other's blood, and swearing to stand by each other in after life, come weal, come woe. While the rest were following with skill and caution the bloody traces of the monster and his prey, these two, dashing on through the dense jungle, soon came upon the object of their search. In a small open space (which I afterwards visited) the tiger was crouched over the dead body of the girl, which it had already begun to devour. The approach of the hunters roused him, and he stood over the carcass, growling defiance at the two men. In a moment an arrow from the bereaved lover's bow pierced the tiger's chest. It struck deep and true, but not so as to stop the dreadful beast, who from a distance of thirty paces come down with his peculiar whirlwind, and rushed on his assailant. The man had just time to draw his "kappee," or battle ax from his girdle, when the tiger seized him by the left wrist. The man leaning well back to gain room for the swing of his ax, drove it with all the collected strength of rage and despair into the tiger's fore arm, severing the massive bone, and leaving the blade buried in the muscles. The next moment his head was crushed in the monster's jaws and he fell dead upon the ground, while the tiger, tamed by the loss of blood, turned around and began to limp away. All occurred so rapidly, that the surviving comrade had not shot a shaft, but now maddened, he ran to the retreating brute and sent arrow after arrow up to the feather into his side and neck, until it rolled over, dying within a few yards of the ill-fated couple. The tiger still breathed as the rest of the party came up. They struck off its head, dissevered the muscle by which the forearm still adhered to the shoulder, and with these spoils, and the mangled bodies of the poor victims borne on litters, they returned, a melancholy party to the village. The above minute details I had from the chief actor himself, a stalwart young fellow. The event had occurred not more than a month or five weeks before, and the sun-dried strips of flesh still adhere to the ghastly trophy on the pole. I wished to have brought the bones away, but they seemed to give some comfort to the poor old Moonda. They reminded him that his daughter had not died unavenged and I left them.

WHAT HEAT CAN DO.—We have been aware for a long time that heat drawed up water to the clouds, but did not know that nails were attracted in the same direction by the same power, until recently. We notice that the nails in the sidewalks in town, or many of them, at least, are protruding from one-fourth to one inch above the planks. Our public walks are splendid traps to catch crinoline. They set themselves every day. We have been informed that in some instances, where the hoops and the fair wearer were strong, the nails have had to suffer, and were extracted bodily.—Nevada Gazette.

THE NEW PARTY.—Seward, Welles, Doolittle, Raymond, Vallandigham, and a lot of broken-down politicians have called a convention to be held at Philadelphia on the 14th of September next, for the purpose of organizing a Johnson party. Rebel politicians have great expectations in connection with the result.—Solano Press.

POPULATION OF AUSTRIAN CITIES.—Vienna, in 1857, 476,224, and in 1861 about 512,000; Prague, in 1862, 132,588; Pesth, 131,805; Venice, 118,173. Trieste, 104,707; Lemberg, 70,384; Gratz, 6u,176; Szegedin, 62,700; Verona, 59,169; Brann, 58,809, Buda, 65,240.

FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE.

DR. JULIEN PERRAULT, Doctor of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University Queen's College, and Physician of the St. John Baptiste Society of San Francisco.

DR PERRAULT has pleasure to inform patients, and others seeking confidential medical advice, that he can be consulted daily at his office, Armorr Hall Building, North-East corner Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco. Rooms No. 9, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs entrance either Montgomery or Sacramento streets.

DR. PERRAULT'S studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the results of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason an l morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruit tasted long afterward patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nocturna Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Uretha on going to stool or making water, the Intellectual Faculties are Weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded, and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writing or the society of friends, etc The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo, and that Sight and Hearing are Weakened and sleep disturbed by dreams, melancholy, sighing, palpitations, faintings, coughs and slow fever; while some have external rheumatic pain, and numbness of the body. Some of the most common symptons are pimples in the face and aching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease, should apply immediately to Dr. PERRAULT, either in person or by letter, as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six to eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal diseases in any stage, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Strictures, Bubo Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.

DR. PERRAULT'S diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required.

Patients suffering under chronic diseases, can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfil our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor, and that advertised physician, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us.

Low charges and quick cures.

Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor, with the assurance of relief

Female Monthly Pills.

DR. PERRAULT is the only agent in California for Dr. Bot's Female Monthly Pills. Their immense sale has established their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other remedy for suppressions and irregularities, and other obstructions in females. On the receipt of five dollars, these Pills will be sent by mail or express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Persons at a distance can be cured at home, by addressing a letter to Dr. PERRAULT, corner of Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms, 10 and 11, up One Pair, P. O., San Francisco, stating the case as minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc., etc.

PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE

Established by
DR. J. C. YOUNG, IN 1836,
FOR THE CURE OF ALL PRIVATE DISEASES AND ALL FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

CONSULTING OFFICE,
536 WASHINGTON STREET,
SAN FRANCISCO, : : : : : : : : : : CALIFORNIA

NO CURE, NO PAY.

Consultation by letter, or otherwise, FREE. For direction of letters, see below.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE has enjoyed on this coast an uninterrupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALE and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength from the frame; they give to the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiotic, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venerial Poison. The mildest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold over the afflicted one, the destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venereal, doubles in dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured; the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be Satisfied with Partial Cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine. WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician whom long practice and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all cases entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT SPEEDY and PERMANENT,

Cures are always Guaranteed.

In syphilis and its adjuncts; Gonnorhea and its accompanying diseases; and all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, and prostrate; Seminal Weakness: Diseases of the Heart and Lungs: Dyspepsia; Indigestion, Dyspepsy; incipient consumption, and all diseases of the urinary organs, in either sex, cure always warranted, NO PAY REQUIRED, at the SEMINAL WEAKNESS OR SPERMATORRHŒA.

The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion unaccountable failing of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread of impending trouble, forebodings of evil, sleeplessness, troubled and lascivious dreams, accompanied by grow ng deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptons of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life as d manhood, and dragging him along the broken path of his existence towards a premature and loath-some grave. To him who finds his life dribbling out in the discharge of the vital principle of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope of cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of her happiness, is a victim to his evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no rescue except in proper and skilful treatment. Consult then, at once, a physician whose long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick rooms with paralytics and consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves with its misguided victims, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE without hindrance to business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

Important to Females.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease and requires medical or surgical assistance, the enquiry should be, Where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to Interpose, and by the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who will feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE. See address below.

THE CELEBRATED FEMALE REMEDIES, compounded from the private prescription of Dr. Young, have now obtained a most extended popularity, and are correctly viewed to be the safest and surest remedies for the complaints for which they are applied. The constantly accruing testimonials of their efficacy declare them to be pre-eminently superior in their action. No lady should be without these Renovating Agents. None genuine unless procured at this office.

Sent by Mail or Express, to any part of the State. The GREAT FEMALE MEDICINE! PREVENTIVE POWDERS for MARRIED LADIES. New, Safe and Infallible, lasting from four to six months. Price, $10. TO THOSE WHO ARE ABOUT TO BUY or Subscribe for the Campaigns of GRANT AND HERMAN,

Read the following recommendations and decide which of the HEADLEY'S Books you will take:

J. T. HEADLEY has a NATIONAL reputation as a Historical Writer.—American Flag.

He has great command of language, and describes scenes, and places, and men, with singular clearness and felicity. The style is brilliant.—San Francisco Bulletin.

The heroic deeds of our gallant Generals are thrillingly told, and from first to last, the book is one of absorbing interest—Contra Costa Gazette.

No subscription books have equalled in popularity those of J. T. Headley.—Marysville Appeal.

This work is the most complete History of these Campaigns which we have seen; and Mr. J. T. Headley, by his spirited style, has given it more than the interest of a romance.—Californian.

We do not hesitate to say it is one of the very best and most popular works ever offered to the public—Oregon Sentinel.

Sold Only by Agents.

The editorials are of the ablest character; the news department is presided over by the best talent of the country, and the miscellaneous matter is evidently selected by editors who are adepts in the business. In short, it is a tremendous newspaper, and what we add are quite as much, a very handsome one.—TRINITY JOURNAL.

Many of the leading articles in the AMERICAN FLAG, when carefully perused, cannot fail to make the lover of his country tremble. They are unmistakably a plain chess-board of the future, and will serve as a beacon light on the political paths of the nation. A large number of these articles are worthy of republication in book form.—LOS ANGELES NEWS.

THE FLAG is to be trusted as a true Union paper without deceit, which no motive of interest can turn from its course; and which cannot be swayed by favor or intimidated by threat. It is a first-class journal and ought to receive the hearty support of the true Union men of San Francisco and the interior. STOCKTON INDEPENDENT.

We have received the AMERICAN FLAG, published at San Francisco, California. It is printed on a double sheet larger than the New York Tribune, and is by far the ablest and best newspaper in the Golden State.—LITCHFIELD (CT.) ESQUIRER.

THE AMERICAN FLAG is the truest, ablest, and most fearless defender of the Union cause in this State. There is no other paper that can be compared with it in any respect. It is independent of cliques, cabals and factions.—NEVADA GAZETTE.

THE AMERICAN FLAG exceeds in variety and interest of its contents any paper west of the Rocky Mountains. It is justly entitled to the hearty friendship of all Union men. The Press generally have accorded it the honor due to their giant cotemporary.—ESMERELDA UNION.

DR. J. [illegible] JOSSELYN.

IMPORTANT

ELECTRICITY AS A CURATIVE AGENT

When [illegible] was promulgated by the Directors of the Electropathic [illegible] Institute that disease could be entirely eradicated from the system without the use of poisonous drugs the thoughtless and [illegible] who do not look deeply into cause and effect scouted the assertion as chimerical, and wrote articles replete with sophistry, claiming that only through the digestive system could the blood be purged of the poisons which constitute disease; a great cry went up from those interested in the continued supremacy of the old system, of one poison to cure another. All of the empirics joined in the chorus, and in their ignorance laughed at the new system, circulating base stories of its ill success, and [illegible] imaginary cases as proofs. Time has demonstrated their dishonesty. After five years of uninterrupted success the Electropathetic system is the leading idea [illegible] medical jurisprudence. While by the old system, physicians are contented to cure one in every five cases, there those who were diving deep into the science of the curative art; among these were the Electropathists; gradually, it was discovered that the failure in most of the cases of organic diseases, was entirely due to the mach[illegible]. Taking this view of the case, Dr. J. H. Josselyn, after years of experiment, has perfected an Electropathic Instrument, which will cure any disease which flesh is heir to, always to be understood that the case is not so far advanced as to show a destruction of the vital tissue. From early morn until late at night, this instrument is employed, imparting health and vigor to all who are so fortunate as to obtain its services. We do not claim that the use of medicines may not be more advantageous in some cases, but, that in connection with the machines, will perform a cure much sooner than without, and a [illegible] that diseases hitherto deemed incurable, can be cured by this [illegible], but the Directors desire to take this opportunity to inform Invalids that the Resident Physician is a regular graduate and has had large experience in the treatment of disease, both with and without the assistance of electricity; he has also discovered several electric Vegetable remedies that will cure almost any ailment, which he will send with full instructions for use to any part of the Pacific coast upon a receipt of a complete description of the disease with which the applicant may be afflicted, and will warrant a complete and perfect cure in all cases where the medicines are used according to directions and more especially in all cases of female troubles, where great care and caution are necessary to a favorable result. Disease (which by the old system) took months, and even years to cure, are now cured in a few days, or weeks. The cost, too, is not so great as by the old system, besides the saving of time. Connected with this system are the renowned than which there is no more powerful auxiliary in the world for the radical cure of disease. There is no institute in the State where the electropathic system is practiced, except at the

Electropathic Institute,

643 Washington street, [illegible] established to, if possible prevent This Institute was [illegible] the unwary from falling into those dens of robbery (relept quacks, doctors, [illegible]) and hereafter the scientific originators of this Institute will not be to blame if the afflicted are robbed of their money, and injured in constitution. There is another view of the affair. The rising generation should here be furnished with strong constitutions, and the Directors wish to house their guardians to a proper sense of their duties in the premises, if possible to prevent them from [illegible] their young charges with deleterious drugs, with a chance of entailing upon the tender constitution just for a thousand times worse thing, a complication of evils, death.

It would be consumption of space, to no purpose, to enumerate the diseases to which this system is applicable, suffice to say, that there is no disease, within the catalogue of human ills known, [illegible] what can be cured at the Electropathic Institute. We have instructed the Resident Physician to warrant a perfect and permanent cure, or ask no pay for services, when in his judgement it is within the bounds of cure.

CAUTION.

Persons seeking the Electropathic Institute, should be careful to remember the [illegible] and number.
